*Just as a cloud pours water on a forest fire
To extinguish it, so the spiritual master delivers the materially afflicted world by extinguishing the blazing fire of material existence. I offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of such a spiritual master, who is an ocean of auspicious qualities.*

Gahe sabe Baba Nam, Baba Nam, Baba Nam Baba Nam Kevalam...

*Without His name, liberation is not possible Sing His name, brothers, Sing His name, let all be liberated and enjoy bliss
The Lord has come, having taken form
His name is Anandamurti
His glory is spreading in every direction Above, below, right, left.
Anandamurti is the Lord of the three realms
He is the king of the universe
Come running, brothers, come everyone Play the flute and mrdanga drum
All the planets and stars have lighted themselves
To perform arati for Him (waving lighted oil lamps)
All the flowers and trees
Are daily showering flowers at His feet.
Saying Baba, the ears feel sweet Saying Baba, the heart feels sweet Saying Baba, the universe feels sweet
All sorrows and pains disappear Nityasatyananda (the writer of this song)
Has only one desire in his mind
That everyone sing Baba Nam Kevalam...*

(Laulu lauletaan bengalinkielellä juuri ennen Akhandaa kiirtania pujapöydän ympärillä seisten. Kiirtan jatkuu välittömästi laulun jälkeen.)
